

WHAT IS TIF?

Tax Increment Financing (TIF) is an economic development financing tool available to local governments to help pay for upgrades to infrastructure and other improvements inside defined areas where redevelopment activities follow a redevelopment plan.

In order for an area to be eligible for TIF in St. Louis City, it must be designated as “blighted” through an ordinance process with the Board of Aldermen.